54th Annual Scientific Meeting
American Society of Cytopathology
Quality, Integrity, Leadership, Collaboration

Exhibitor Prospectus

Deadline: July 6, 2006
The American Society of Cytopathology cordially invites your company to exhibit at the 54th Annual Scientific Meeting. The meeting is scheduled to take place November 3-8, 2006 at the Sheraton Centre Toronto Hotel in Toronto, Ontario, Canada.

The purpose of the ASC Exhibit Hall is to further the education of the registrants by providing an area where attendees can learn about new developments, compare products and services, see demonstrations, and expand knowledge in their field.

Exhibits are an important part of the Annual Scientific Meeting; we offer you the opportunity to promote your products and services to those decision-makers and influential individuals in the laboratory and healthcare industry. By participating as an exhibitor, your company has the opportunity to interact face-to-face with ASC members who value this meeting as a networking opportunity.

Priority Points
The ASC has instituted a Priority Point System for placement of exhibiting companies within the Exhibit Hall. The system has been designed to reward companies for their support of the ASC and ASC programs.

Please note: The Priority Point deadline is July 6, 2006; Contracts received after July 6th will have space assigned on a first-come, first-served basis.

Thank you and we look forward to seeing you at the
The American Society of Cytopathology is a professional society of physicians, cytotechnologists and scientists who are dedicated to the cytolologic method of diagnostic pathology. The ASC’s diverse membership of more than 3,000 individuals includes international representatives who share a vision of education, research, and continuous improvement in the standards and quality of patient care.

The educational programs of the ASC are of prime importance to its members and to the Executive Board. The ASC recognizes the need to quickly integrate evolving basic science insights and experimental newly available techniques into research and clinical practice. This need is addressed through its educational programs.

Educational Objectives:

- To update cytologists on the current practice of cytopathology
- To encourage the highest quality in clinical cytopathology
- To foster research in the early diagnosis and effective treatment of human diseases
- To provide a forum for advocacy on behalf of cytologists and their patients

Space Assignment
The ASC Exhibits will be held in the Sheraton Centre Toronto Hotel – Sheraton Hall and Osgoode Ballroom (Lower Concourse). The Exhibit Hall is open to meeting attendees: Saturday evening, November 4th through Monday morning, November 6th.

For all contracts and payments received by July 6, 2006, space will be assigned based on Priority Points, receipt of deposit, consideration to proximity of competitive displays and other matters relating to conduct of the trade show. Companies will receive notification of their booth assignments in late July 2006.

Exhibitors wishing to avoid assignment of space adjacent to that of a particular competitor should indicate this on the application. Careful consideration will be given to all such requests, although they cannot be guaranteed.

No space will be assigned or reserved unless a deposit has been received.

Those contracts for exhibit space, received after the July 6th deadline, will be assigned based on receipt of contract and on a first-come, first served basis.

The ASC and GES CANADA reserve the right to make changes to the floor plan of booths as may be deemed necessary and to revise the floor plan from time to time to accommodate those changes.

Priority Points System
Exhibitors earn Priority Points for their participation in the ASC and the Annual Scientific Meeting. For Exhibit Space Contracts received by the July 6th deadline, space will be assigned based on each company’s priority point number (starting with the highest), their space choice, and consideration to proximity of competitive displays and other matters relating to conduct of the trade show. Assignments are made based on highest priority point level to the lowest.

Subletting Space
The subletting, assignment or apportionment of the whole or partial space by any exhibitor is prohibited. No exhibitor may permit any other party to exhibit in their space and goods other than those manufactured or handled by the contracting exhibitor, nor permit the solicitation of business by others within their space.

ASC’s Right to Refuse Space
The ASC reserves the right to refuse space assignment to any company whose products or services do not contribute directly to the meeting delegates’ healthcare practice.

- 8’ high back drape
- 3’ high draped side rails
- one 6’ draped table
- two side chairs
- one 7” x 44” ID sign
- one wastebasket

Electricity
Freeman Electrical provides electricity on an exclusive basis. The order forms will be included in the Exhibitor Service Manual. All orders must be placed directly with Freeman.

Telephone, Audiovisual, Janitorial Services
Order forms and rates will be available for each exhibitor in the Exhibitor Service Manual. This kit will be available on the ASC Website in August.

Cancellation of Booth Space
Cancellation of booth space must be directed in writing to the ASC National Office. Cancellations received before August 30, 2006 will receive 80% refund of booth rental fee. Cancellations received between August 30, 2006 and October 11, 2006 will receive a 50% refund of booth rental fee. All cancellations received after October 11, 2006 will not receive a refund.

Exhibit Personnel
All personnel participating in the ASC Annual Exhibit Show in any capacity must be registered. The names of the booth personnel must be submitted to the ASC Meetings Manager by August 30, 2006 in order to be included in the ASC Program Book (names received after this date may not be included in Program Book). Please review the number of badges permitted per booth below. Each person will be issued an exhibitor’s badge and must be employed by the exhibitor or have a direct business affiliation.

Complimentary Annual Scientific Meeting Registration
- 10’ x 10’ booth – does not qualify
- 10’ x 20’ booth or larger – 1 complimentary Annual Scientific Meeting registration

Exhibitors, who qualify, will be sent a registration form in July 2006. In order to take advantage of this complimentary registration, you must return the completed registration form to the ASC National Office by October 2, 2006.

Definition of Complimentary Annual Scientific Meeting Registration: Entities exhibit personnel to attend the Scientific Sessions and all breaks Saturday through Monday. This complimentary registration does NOT include the Panel Luncheons, Microscopic Tutorials, Program Faculty Seminar, Workshops, or Awards Dinner. There is a separate fee for each of those functions.

If your company does not qualify for the complimentary Annual Scientific Meeting registration or would like to purchase additional registrations, you must register separately. Registration materials will be available from the ASC National Office in July 2006.

Exhibitor Information & Guidelines
As a condition of exhibiting, each exhibiting company agrees to observe and follow all policies outlined in the rules and regulations stated in the Exhibitor Prospectus.
Exhibitor Information & Guidelines

Exhibitor Service Manual
In August, the Exhibitor Service Manual will be available online at www.cytopathology.org. This manual contains a complete set of service forms, rates and instructions. Exhibitors are urged to order all required services and furnishings in advance to minimize delays and additional costs during set-up.

Installation and Dismantling
The installation of exhibits must be completed between 8:00 a.m. – 5:00 p.m. on Saturday, November 4th. The Exhibit Hall will open with the President’s Welcome Reception for all attendees at 6:00 p.m. If any exhibiting company needs additional, early set-up time, please contact GES CANADA to make arrangements. All early move-ins will be accommodated based on availability.

No part of the exhibit shall be removed during the show without special permission from the ASC National Office. Exhibits must be kept intact until the closing of the exhibits tentatively 10:00 a.m. on Monday, November 6th. All exhibits must be fully removed by 8:00 p.m. on Monday, November 6th.

Labor
Decorators Union Local 506: Members of this union claim jurisdiction over material handling, all set up and dismantling of exhibits excluding sign hanging which is done on an exclusive basis by FREEMAN. You may set up your exhibit display provided one person can accomplish this task without the use of power tools or step ladder. If your exhibit preparation, installation, or dismantling requires power tools or a step ladder you are urged to use union personnel to work with your personnel on a one-to-one basis.

Should an exhibitor wish to have their exhibit installed/dismantled by a contractor other than GES, the official show decorator, the exhibitor must inform GES Canada and the ASC Meetings Manager of the name and work to be performed by the contractor.

Liability/Insurance
The Exhibitor hereby assumes entire responsibility and hereby agrees to protect, defend, indemnify and save the Hotel, its owners, its operator, Sheraton Centre Toronto Hotel, American Society of Cytopathology and each of their respective parents, subsidiaries, affiliates, employees, officers, directors, and agents harmless against all claims, losses or damages to persons or property, governmental charges or fines and attorney’s fees arising out of or caused by its installation, removal, maintenance, occupancy or use of the exhibition premises or a part thereof, excluding any such liability caused by the sole gross negligence of the Hotel and its employees and agents.

Exhibitor acknowledges that neither the Hotel, its owners, its operator, nor Sheraton Centre Toronto Hotel maintain insurance covering exhibitor’s property and that it is the sole responsibility of the Exhibitor to obtain business interruption and property damage insurance insuring any losses by the Exhibitor.

The exhibitor assumes the entire responsibility and liability for losses, damages and claims deriving out of injury or damage to exhibitor’s displays, equipment and other property brought upon the premises of the hotel, and shall indemnify and hold harmless the hotel agents, servants and employees from any and all such losses, damages and claims.

Exhibitors wishing to insure their exhibit materials, goods and/or wares of exhibits against theft, damage by fire, accident or loss of any kind, must do so at their own expense. Each exhibiting company is responsible for obtaining insurance (Liability and Fire/Theft) in such amounts deemed appropriate to comply with its obligation hereunder and for its own protection.

Travel & Immigration
Canada is an International destination; however, at this time, U.S. passports are not necessary to visit Toronto or other parts of Canada. To verify citizenship, you should carry any one of the following documents: birth certificate, naturalization certificate, Green Card or Passport. Photo identification is also required, therefore please carry a driver’s license or other photo ID. You may bring Lap Tops, Palmcorders, MP3’s and related equipment – yet you are advised to register these items with the U.S. Customs prior to leaving the U.S. to avoid delay re-entering.

Currency & Tax
Toronto’s currency is the Canadian Dollar. U.S. dollars are accepted in most Toronto establishments.

Additional information and helpful links about Toronto, Ontario, Canada are available on the ASC Website at www.cytopathology.org.
ADA Compliance
Exhibitor represents and warrants: (1) the exhibit will be accessible to the full extent required by law, (2) that its exhibit will comply with the Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA) and with any regulations implemented by the ACT, and (3) that shall indemnify it and hold harmless and defend the ASC from and against any and all claims and expenses including reasonable attorneys fees and litigation expenses that may be incurred by or asserted against the ASC on the basis of the Exhibitor’s breach of this paragraph or non-compliance with any of the provisions of the ADA.

In compliance with the ADA, all booth personnel needing special assistance should contact the ASC National Office (302) 429-8802 with their requests.

Playing or Performing of Music
Exhibitor represents and warrants that no musical work protected by copyright will be staged, produced or, otherwise, performed via either “live” or “mechanical” means, by or on behalf of Exhibitor, unless Exhibitor has previously obtained written permission from the copyright owner or the copyright owner’s designee (e.g., ASCAP, BMI or SESAC) for such use.

Security
Security personnel shall be furnished by the ASC to be on duty in the exhibit area for the duration of the exhibits, but the safekeeping of the exhibitor’s property shall remain the responsibility of the exhibitor.

Fire Protection
All materials used in the exhibit area must be flame proof and fire-resistant in order to conform to local fire ordinances and be in accordance with regulations established by the National Association of Fire Underwriters.

Any exhibits or parts thereof found not to be fireproof may be ordered dismantled. All aisles and exhibits must be kept clear at all times, and fire stations or fire extinguisher equipment are not to be covered or obstructed.

Lead Retrieval System
The ASC does not provide lead retrieval systems or magnetic badges for scanning.

Use of Society’s Name, Insignia Logo, or Acronym (ASC)
The use of the Society’s name, logo or acronym is forbidden on signs inside or outside the exhibit area and on descriptive product literature. Reference may be made to the meeting as the American Society of Cytopathology Annual Scientific Meeting (with place and dates) on the exhibitor’s advertising provided it is first approved by the Society. This rule applies before, after, and/or during the meeting.

Giveaways
Giveaways will be limited to those items relevant to the professional interests of the registrants, and must have a value of $10.00 or less per item. All giveaways and handouts, with the exception of literature, must have written approval of the Society prior to the meeting. Such requests must be submitted to ASC Meetings Manager by October 2, 2006. Requests received after Monday, October 2nd, will not be approved. The ASC will request removal of unapproved items.

Corporate Support Opportunities
An additional marketing tool offered by the ASC is the opportunity to support materials and events at the Annual Scientific Meeting. For more information contact: Elizabeth Jenkins, ASC Executive Director at (302) 429-8802 or bjenkins@cytopathology.org

Advertisements
Let the ASC Members know you are exhibiting by advertising in The ASC Bulletin, the official newsletter for the American Society of Cytopathology. It is published six (6) times each year, and issues are sent to all members of the Society.

The ASC is now accepting advertisements on the ASC Website – Vendor Section. These advertisements, names and/or logos may be linked to the supporter’s corporate, product or educational sites, as approved by the ASC.

Contact the ASC National Office or visit the ASC Website at www.cytopathology.org for more information.

Mailing Lists
Meeting Registrants Only: The Registrants Only mailing list is another way to let the registrants know exactly where you will be located at the Annual Scientific Meeting. This list is available to Exhibitors prior to the Annual Meeting for $100.00 and will be available starting October 9, 2006.

Entire ASC Membership: The cost of the Entire Mailing List is $0.25 per address and a minimum order of 500 addresses is required. Currently, the ASC has approximately 3,000 members.

For more information regarding the ASC Mailing Lists, please contact the ASC National Office at (302) 429-8802; fax (302) 429-8807 or asc@cytopathology.org
